

Meka King radiates with the love and the joy of the Lord. Simply put, she is a true worshipper. With an energetic, intense passion for His presence, Meka's gift sets an atmosphere for worship. You can't experience her ministry and not get excited about entering into the presence of the King.

Hearing the voice of God as a child, Meka knew she was assigned to "reach the masses." She became a television news writer and segment producer, thinking that "mass media" was her calling. But the Lord soon proved His true purpose for her life. As Meka made her transition into the music world, the Lord used Praise and Worship to propel her to another level.

Meka toured for nearly 2 years with International Praise and Worship Leader, Ron Kenoly. As they traveled to the Nations, the Lord continued to develop and prepare her for the call and anointing that He'd placed on her life. Meka soon discovered that something special happened when she sang. The Lord used her to create an atmosphere for change in the lives of His people. As people began to share their testimonies, Meka became sure of her calling to impact the Kingdom.

Meka later became a background vocalist for several other Contemporary Christian artists and ministries including Martha Munizzi, Al Denson, LaRue Howard, Clint Brown, the Kenoly Brothers, and William McDowell. Working with such great artists has given Meka a strong foundation for the ministry that God has entrusted to her.

The mandate for her debut release, Count It All Joy, came as the Lord walked her through this awesome testimony. Standing on James 1:2-4, Meka realized that the adversity in her life was not arbitrary. She found that the Lord purifies us during our trials so that when we emerge we are like gold: strong and valuable, precious and pure. So now Meka is striving to "reach the masses" in the way that God actually intended. She allows the Lord to use her to evoke change in the lives of His people through music, outreach and true worship. Meka ministers in song and speaks for worship conferences across the globe. She has a heart for sowing into the lives of young girls and women. She leads worship and speaks for girl's/youth ministries and conferences as well. Meka's outreach ministry, KINGDOM Ministries, is working in the Central Florida community to impact lives and meet the physical needs of people in the area. She knows it's necessary to minister to the total man and strives to do this through food and clothing drives, outreach programs and workshops for youth, volunteering, counseling and contributions.

Most recently, Meka appeared on Trinity Broadcasting Network's PRAISE THE LORD Show, Bobby Jones Gospel, Today's Family, FOX Morning Blend, RAW-TV, and Lee Pitts Live. She is also a featured musical guest at the House of Blues Gospel Brunch in Orlando. Meka has served as Worship Leader for Proclaim the Truth Bible Fellowship in Orlando and the Orlando House of Prayer, a Mission Base of the International House of Prayer in Kansas City. She lead as a member of the FRONTLINE Worship Team at Faith World Center. She also traveled with Rick Gage Ministries for Go Tell Crusades.

Meka has performed for several Central Florida theme parks. She was the female singer for Cirque Du Soleil's La Nouba show in Orlando; the Princess (Kibibi) in the Festival of the Lion King Show at Disney's Animal Kingdom; and the lead singer in Sea World's Christmas show, MIRACLES, which features Shamu the killer whale. She was an ensemble character and featured singer at the Holy Land Experience, a Christian-themed park. Meka also plays the Aretha Franklin character in the Blues Brother's Show at Universal Studios Florida.
